TO ADVERTISERS.—The VERMONT DAILY TRANSCRIPT has the largest circulation in St. Albans and in Franklin County, of any daily paper, and is on that account, if no other, the best medium for advertising.

Local Items.

Interesting matter, original or selected, may always be found on the first page.

OUR DAILY.—Those wishing to secure copies of our daily paper can do so at Merrifield's and Baker's bookstores, as well as of carriers, and at the office. Copies of our weekly paper may also be had at these places.

VERMONT STATE FAIR.—Charles Pierce, of Stanbridge P. Q. has entered his big ox "General Grant" with some five car loads of fancy stock, of all bloods for the State Fair next week. The present indications are, that there will be the greatest number of good cattle and horses on Exhibition ever held in the State.

It is worthy of note that, at Mr. Barlow's reception at the Weldon, on Friday evening, Mr. McDonald had his forces "in uniform," the table waiters being all neatly dressed in white; and the way they attended to the wants of the multitude, ready at all times with suggestions of "Something more, sir," for the hungry or thirsty, was worthy of great credit.

THE death of Mr. John Meigs is announced in our columns this evening. Mr. Meigs was the first male child born in St. Albans, and his father, the late Daniel B. Meigs, was, of course, one of the first settlers of St. Albans. Mr. John Meigs was a highly respectable farmer, a kind-hearted neighbor, and leaves a large circle of relatives and friends to lament his decease.

PERSONAL.—Mr. L. H. Goff has been appointed Gauger in the Internal Revenue Department for the 3rd Collection District of Vermont.

THE ELECTION.—With the six small towns of Jay, Brunswick, North Hero, Belvidere, Granville and Peru to hear from, the Republican majority foots up 26,774, nearly up to our first mark of 27,000. In November we are sure to give Grant 30,000.

THE VOTE OF VERMONT.—The vote of Vermont for the past ten years has been as follows:

	Rep.	Dem.	Majority
1858	20,469	11,367	15,952
1859	31,367	14,409	15,863
1860	44,219	11,890	22,370
1861	33,155	8,912	24,048
1862	30,032	3,724	26,308
1863	29,612	11,962	17,651
1864	41,200	12,223	18,977
1865	27,503	8,857	18,722
1866	34,117	11,292	22,825
1867	31,094	11,510	20,183

This year the Republican majority will not probably be less than 27,000.

THE LEGISLATURE.—Returns thus far show 219 Republican Representatives elected, and 15 Democrats—a gain of 6 Republicans. The Senate is unanimously Republican—a gain of Bradley Barlow.

Money Change.

Change in rates of Commission charged for money orders.

On orders not exceeding $20.	10cts.
Over $20, & under $50.	15 "
" 50, " " 100.	20 "
" 100, " " 500.	25 "

To promote convenience and to insure greater security in the transfer of money through the United States Mails, The Postmaster-General has established Money Post Offices in the United States. Money Orders at the St. Albans Post Office. 981f

REMINISCENCES.—THE ATTEMPTS AND FAILURE.—The following extract, is taken from a private letter written by a leading citizen of Montgomery, to Hon. Bradley Barlow under date of August 29th 1868, which is published by Mr. Barlow's permission. After explaining Mr. Atwood's war record, Messrs. Hoyt and C. C. Burton passed on to show, "that if Atwood was made a Senator, he would exert himself to the utmost to help as in matters pertaining to a Railroad, and to all of the same we listened with marked attention, and preferred to remain mute, but our opinion being demanded—we were obliged to express ourselves in regard to the whole matter—not forgetting to point out the evidence of Mr. Atwood's patriotism as seen in the Senate, and placed upon the records of the same,—and also alluding to the fact of his being praised by one Atkins at a Convention of the enemies of equality, justice and humanity, and nominated by them—which in and of itself, was sufficient to curse any man—and we gave it as our opinion that God being our helper, we would never lend our influence in that direction. I have not time to write more, it is about time for the mail.

This town was deceived to some extent last year, I did not take any stock in the falsehoods—but cast my vote for you, and I think the town will redeem itself next Tuesday. I suppose you feel a deep anxiety, it would be singular if you did not, but you must keep it cool. I expect you will be elected, but if you should not, you must bear in mind that it is better to be defeated in maintaining the right, than to triumph in the wrong.

Your former party speak ill of you because they dread your influence, but do not fear, you should appreciate their curses. They are more on your credit side than all they could say in your favor. When I learned of the remarks of Hiram Atkins in favor of Atwood, I said "that is enough to curse any man," and I have not changed my mind yet.

I think "Andrew the Prison Keeper" will get but few votes here. Trusting that your intention is to stand by principles of justice and humanity, and that in so doing you will meet with success. I remain,

Your Friend—

Tuesday morning Sept. 1st. I did not get this letter into the mail as I anticipated, and will now write a word more. We had a new delegation this morning and a new argument. Oscar A. Burton and A. C. Wheeler composed the delegation. The object in view this morning is to get the Rutland road extended to Swanton, via, St. Albans Bay. Mr. Atwood will do the thing up all right, and we of this town will save some freight, for there will be competition. Barlow will oppose it and Atwood worked for the people—Barlow for the Vt. Central. My reply to Burton was very. I didn't know but what Barlow (as they said) would cheat us, and as for Atwood, I did know that he had made his Record; I knew what to expect from him; that their object was to divert our minds from the great question to minor points; that I should not lend my influence to elect a man nominated by that party who fought the administration of the "Martyred Lincoln," gave encouragement to rebels all through the war, and were now doing their best to fan the dying embers of the rebellion, to moisten new fields with blood, and fill the land again with the widow's wail and orphan's piteous cry.

4 p. m.—Montgomery has redeemed herself! Notwithstanding all the efforts made by Hoyt, Burton, Wheeler & Co. we gave for you 176; for Atwood, 34; the latter being Democrats, and all that could be bought and deceived.

OBITUARY.—Gen. Levi S. Humphrey died in Wayne, Mich., of heart disease, on the morning of the 23rd ult., at the age of 71 years. He was a native of Vermont, and was one of the earliest settlers of Michigan. For many years he held high official positions under the Federal and State Governments, and he was for some years known as a leading contractor in building railroads in Vermont, Canada and Michigan.—Times.

DEMOCRATIC.—"GREAT EXPECTATIONS" OF VERMONT.—The New York Express of Tuesday, speaking of the Vermont election, said:

"We predict a handsome, clear, decided Democratic gain. The changes there are many, and many Republicans will now vote for Democratic State officers, and more in November next."

The latter part of this article is rather mixed, and so must be the feelings of the author about this time.

FULTON MARKET.—Just received, a nice lot of Dried Beef, Sugar Cured Hams, Bologna Sausage, Sweet Potatoes, Tomatoes, Peas, Peaches, Water Melons and Musk Melons. dtf-94.

EYE AND EAR INFIRMARY.—We notice, by Northern New York papers, that an Eye and Ear Infirmary has been established and is now successfully conducted at Plattsburgh, under the direction of Samuel Haynes, M. D., a son of the late Dr. Thomas Haynes, who was born in North Hero, practiced a few years in Swanton, and for thirty years in Westford, in this State. The papers speak highly of Dr. Haynes' ability and give numerous certificates of his successful practice in these special cases. Ladies and gentlemen from various States are now boarding at Plattsburgh, receiving treatment at the "Champlain Valley Eye and Ear Infirmary," and are receiving much benefit, and many local cases have been successfully treated. We believe Dr. Haynes, who has two brothers also regular physicians, is a skillful physician, and doubt not that he will achieve success in the department he is making a specialty.

The palm of superiority is awarded to Mrs. S. A. Allen for her Improved new style Hair Restoring or Dressing, (in one bottle,) and a grateful public appreciates the very low price, One Dollar. Every Drugist sells it. 4w

Reader, if your Druggist or Merchant does not keep Renne's Pain-Killing Magic Oil on hand to sell he will send for it at your request, and sell it at the manufacturer's lowest price at retail. "It works like a charm." dw

It is not probable that Absalom was obliged to use any hair preparation to force his hair to grow to such an extreme length as it is said to have attained. In our day, however, people quite frequently find it necessary to call scientific skill to aid them in this respect. Such will find their every wish supplied in "Barnett's Vegetable Hair Restorative."—Davenport (Iowa) Democrat. d4w.

Taking medicine to cure diseases occasioned by a deficiency of Iron in the blood, without restoring it to the system, is like trying to repair a building when the foundation is gone. The Pervian Syrup (a protoxide of iron) supplies this deficiency and builds up an iron constitution.

Messrs. S. D. & H. W. Smith, of this city, the well known manufacturers of the AMERICAN ORGANS, have recently added to their styles, very powerful and attractive Organs for churches, with beautiful upright cases, having gilded imitation pipes, making them fine ornamental instruments for the choir gallery or chapel. All musicians, upon hearing them, express their surprise at the amount of pure and full tone which they are capable of producing. These new styles contain the deep manual sub-bass, and super octave coupler, giving them sufficient volume to sustain even a hundred or more voices, and yet are rich in soft and expressive effects. They are becoming very popular on account of their real musical merit, and also for their reasonableness in price, bringing them within the reach of all churches. —Boston Christian Register.

MARRIED.

In Waterford, N. Y., Sept. 2d, by Rev. D. T. Tomlinson, Henry L. Lamb, and Lizzie T. Brockway.

DIED.

In St. Albans, September 4th, 1868, Mr. John Meigs, aged about 80 years. The funeral will be held on Sunday, Sept. 6th, at 1 o'clock, p. m., at his residence.

ATTENTION!!

We propose to fight it out on this line for the next SEVENTEEN YEARS!

No Terms but Unconditional Surrender!

We make Peace by a vigorous prosecution of THE WAR!!

AGENTS WANTED in every Town, to canvass. Employment for Gentlemen or Ladies. Individuals, Town, County or State Rights for sale.

Letters Patent were granted us August 18, for a new device for catching flies, by which any lady can rid her house of those pests, as readily as she can dust her parlor. We carry on the war according to the rules of civilized nations, resorting to no Poisons, Sticking Plaster, or Chemical combinations, but like "Crocket's gun," they come down. We live by action—not words! Gentlemen or Ladies, TRY US. We present the best flies and instruments for catching to be found in the United States. Communications addressed to us will receive prompt attention.
